

Biometrically secured e-mail client and file Transfer

Biometrically secured e-mail client and file transferring system is a web based program developed in STRUTS implemented using Digital Signature and Biometric user validation technology. Digital Signature is used to verify that the message is not tampered or altered on its path.

Modules of the project:

- Registration
- Secured File sharing and transfer
- Messaging module